

Sunrise City.
InJoy - Changing Lives.

Verse-1

The darkness lost ground
The shimmering light hit her deep blue eyes
Sitting there, she waited and smiled
Thank God, she thought, I'm back in my town.
These days life wants too much of you
There are duties, many tasks to do
You have to find a place to be
A place that could set you free

PreChorus

Far away the golden ball
Left its hidden place of night
Jumping up she starred ahead
Now the ring is free for

Chorus

Sunrise City which is build of hopes and dreams
Sunrise City, get off the pressure of life
Doesn't matter where you're coming from or what came about
Now, step in, close the doors and your sorrows they stay out

Verse-2

The horizon gets closer
The world was waking up
Bit by bit the rising sun
Dipped it in its golden light
Now she saw it from far away
The shapes of roofs, towers and funnels
She wanted to run to slam the doors
Be forever part of

Chorus 3x
